
Attachment 3 TSO Designation

The specific Bidding Zone borders Germany-France, Germany-Netherlands, Germany-Austria and Germany-Switzerland are operated by more than one TSO on the German side of the border. As nomination has to be submitted by TSO border, the Physical Transmission Rights shall be attributed to one (1) of the respective TSO borders.

Each Registered Participant which wishes to participate in Auction on the mentioned Bidding Zone border(s), irrespective of whether he intends to nominate or not, shall determine to which German TSO acquired Physical Transmission Rights shall be attributed.

The initial TSO designation is determined when signing this Participation Agreement by ticking the boxes below:

For Bidding Zone Border Germany-France (only one TSO border can be ticked):

- AMPRION - RTE border, or TransnetBW - RTE border.

For Bidding Zone border Germany-Netherlands (only one TSO border can be ticked):

- AMPRION - TenneT TSO BV border, or
 TenneT TSO GmbH – TenneT TSO BV border.

For Bidding Zone border Germany-Austria (only one TSO border can be ticked):

- TenneT TSO GmbH - APG border, or
 AMPRION - APG border, or TransnetBW - APG border.

For Bidding Zone border Germany-Switzerland (only one TSO border can be ticked)⁹

- AMPRION - Swissgrid border, or
 TransnetBW - Swissgrid border.

The initial TSO designation may be modified by notification to the Allocation Platform no later than seven (7) Working Days before the start of the concerned delivery period in accordance with the form published on the website of the Allocation Platform.¹⁰

⁹In order to be able to participate in long term auctions on this border the Allocation Rules for Forward Capacity Allocation on Swiss Borders shall be accepted in Attachment 1 section 3 of the Participation Agreement.

¹⁰The Registered Participant acknowledges that in case of change in Balance Responsible Party agreements with TSOs which indicates a change in the initially determined TSO designation, the Registered Participant is responsible to send the Amendment to the Participation Agreement with the updated information.
